INTRODUCTION

This grant year (July 2021 - June 2022) began with a hopeful arc. The widespread availability of Covid vaccines gave us a heady taste of freedom. Employing Covid-induced ingenuity, most people safely returned to work and play, connecting and reconnecting personally and professionally. As we re-emerged, we took stock of the damage, but we also knew that we had muscle. We leaned into the spirit of service and care that guided us since March 2020, both locally and globally. By January 2022, optimism prevailed.

And then the winds shifted again. By June, the world was four months into the Ukrainian war and a growing international food and fuel crisis. Refugees poured into Europe and Israel. In New York and across our country, we watched escalating levels of hate crimes and witnessed ongoing and inflation-generated economic struggle. Our fragile sense of security was again shattered. Our only certainty was uncertainty.

But at UJA-Federation our tool kit is always ready. And it's been made stronger and more robust by the pandemic years, which proved a period of enormous innovation, learning, and forward progress. While doubling down on our abiding mission and providing unprecedented levels of communal and organizational support, we also invested in new models across our portfolio as historic impediments fell and old ways of doing business proved inadequate. Data from the UJA Covid-19 Impact Study (designed to measure the social, economic, and spiritual impacts of the pandemic) guided our ability to meet the moment.

UJA's signature is our ability to hold both the proven and the new in balance. We do this in concert with our determined donors and courageous lay leaders who see this split screen of the present moment and the future and understand that now and later are inextricably linked. Despite the difficulties of our current environment, we continue to plant the seeds for better and brighter days. Thank you for joining this effort. We hope that this book reads like a celebration of how far we have come and how much more there is that we will only get done together.

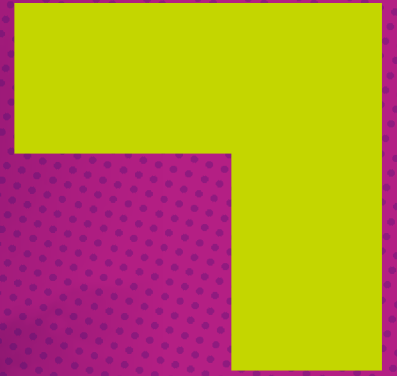

WHAT WE DO AND HOW WE DO IT

As always, UJA is represented by teams of volunteers and staff who showcase the rich diversity of Jewish life. Together, we work from organizational priorities that determine the path for how and what we fund. We're also committed to hearing from nonprofit staff and academics, community members, and the clients we help to best understand how to make the greatest impact.

In 2021 – 2022, UJA distributed $150,454,000. This includes $62,437,000 in unrestricted grants to a network of more than 60 core partners plus $72,300,000 in strategic, directed grants and $15,717,000 in emergency Ukraine, Covid-19, and Crisis Response related grants to longstanding institutions, grassroots organizations, synagogues, day schools, and other eligible nonprofit organizations.

That's how we keep moving upward this year — and every year.
